The Seller must submit any proposal for adjustment to the P.O. price or Delivery schedule, or both, as provided under this Clause within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt by Seller of the change from the Buyer.

- 4.4 Buyer's engineering and technical representatives may from time to time render assistance to Seller concerning the Supplies or Services to be furnished pursuant to this P.O. - 6.1 The Seller and the Buyer recognize that information disclosed to and/or acquired by each other hereunder may be confidential and/or proprietary to the disclosing party, the disclosure of which to third parties could result in irreparable harm to the party furnishing such information. The parties agree that each party has the right to seek and obtain temporary, preliminary and permanent injunction relief to restrain any unauthorized use or disclosure of its proprietary information in addition to all other remedies available to that party in law or equity.

- 6.2 All information of a proprietary nature disclosed by one party to the other party hereto in connection with this P.O. and designated by the disclosing party by an appropriate stamp, marking, or legend as being proprietary to the disclosing party, shall be held in strict confidence by the receiving party and shall not be duplicated, used or disclosed in whole or in part for any purpose except by the Seller under equivalent conditions of confidentiality, and to the extent strictly necessary to obtain Supplies or Services in the normal course of trade for the performance of this P.O. and to comply with other terms of this P.O., and except by the Buyer to the extent strictly necessary for its intended use. - If any portion of the party's information falls within any one of the above exceptions, the remainder shall continue to be subject to the restrictions of this Clause.
- 6.4 To the extent reasonably necessary for the purpose of this P.O., a party may disclose the information of the other party, provided that the disclosing party makes such disclosure subject to like conditions of confidentiality or such other condition as the parties may agree, as appropriate, and marks the information so disclosed with the appropriate restrictive legends and such other marking of an industrial property right nature as the party owning the information may require, provided that such marking is not disallowed under the provisions of the Federal, State or local laws or regulations.
- 6.5 Either party disclosing or reproducing another party's information hereunder shall replicate in any reproductions any copyright and other intellectual or industrial property right marks and legends as appear on and/or in such information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing sentence, in the case of a composite work created by Buyer containing any of the said information the copyright in which vests in the Seller, the Seller hereby agrees to waive the said replication requirement if such composite work is marked with the legend:
- "This is an unpublished work, the copyright in which rests

7. DEFAULT
- 7.1 Buyer may, by written notice, terminate this P.O. in whole or in part, if the Seller:
- (A) fails to deliver the Supplies or to perform the Services within the time specified in the P.O. or any extension thereof, or
 - (B) fails to make progress so as to endanger performance of this P.O.; or
 - (C) fails to perform any of the other provisions of this P.O.
- Buyer's right to terminate this P.O. under Subparagraphs (B) and (C) above shall be exercised if the Seller does not cure such failure within ten (10) days after receipt of "Cure Notice" from the Buyer specifying the failure.
- 7.2 If Buyer terminates this P.O. in whole or in part by reason of Seller's default, the Buyer may acquire (reprocure), under the terms and conditions and in the manner Buyer considers reasonable and appropriate such similar Supplies or Services as those terminated. The Seller shall be liable to the Buyer for any excess costs for Supplies or Services so acquired, it being understood that the Seller shall continue to work on that portion not terminated. With regard to the Seller's liability for excess costs:
- (A) Except for defaults by Seller's subcontractors at any tier, the Seller shall not be liable for any excess costs if the failure to perform under the P.O. arises from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Seller. Examples of such causes include acts or omissions on the part of Buyer; acts of God; civil strife; labor strikes; actions of the Government or any sovereign government in its sovereign or contractual capacity; fires; floods; epidemics; quarantine restrictions; or, freight embargoes.
 - (B) If the delay or failure is caused by the delay or failure of a subcontractor of the Seller, and if such delay or failure arises out of causes beyond the reasonable control of both the Seller and the subcontractor, and without the fault or negligence of either of them, the Seller shall not be liable to the Buyer for excess costs, unless the subcontracted Supplies or Services to be furnished by the subcontractor were reasonably obtainable from other known sources in sufficient time to permit the Seller to meet the required Delivery schedule.
- 7.3 If the P.O. is terminated for default, Buyer may require the Seller to transfer title and deliver to the Buyer any (i) completed Supplies and (ii) partially completed Supplies and materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, plans, drawings, information and contract rights (collectively referred to as "manufacturing materials" in this Clause), that the Seller has specifically produced or acquired for the terminated portion of the P.O. Seller shall also protect and preserve property in its possession in which the Buyer has an interest.
- 7.4 Buyer shall pay the P.O. price for completed Supplies and Services previously delivered and accepted. The parties shall agree on the amount of payment for manufacturing material delivered and accepted and for the production and preservation of the property. Failure to agree shall be a dispute under the "Disputes" Clause of this P.O. The Seller may not withhold Supplies, or partially completed Supplies, materials, parts, tools, dies, jigs, fixtures, etc. pending a resolution of the dispute.

- 7.5 If, after termination for a Seller's default, it is determined that the Seller was not in default, or that the default was excusable, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be the same as if the termination had been for the convenience of the Buyer under the Clause entitled "Termination for Convenience."
- 7.6 The rights and remedies of the Buyer in this Clause are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this P.O.

23. NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES

23.1 The purpose of this Clause is to provide Buyer with the prompt reporting of any conduct which the Seller considers constitutes a change to this P.O. The parties acknowledge potential changes are to be identified and resolved as they arise. Therefore, except for written change orders issued by Buyer, the Seller shall notify Buyer of any conduct which the Seller considers constitutes or requires a change to this P.O. Such notice shall be provided promptly, and in any event within ten (10) calendar days from the date the Seller identifies any such conduct. As used in this Clause, the term "conduct" includes both actions and failures to act, and the furnishing of, or the failure to furnish, any item under any provision of this P.O. The notice shall be written and shall state, on the basis of the most accurate information available to the Seller:

- (A) the date, nature and circumstances of the conduct regarded as a change;
- (B) the name, function and activity of the individuals directly involved in or knowledgeable about such conduct;
- (C) the identification of any documents and the substance of any oral communication involved in such conduct;
- (D) the particular elements of contract performance for which the Seller might seek an equitable adjustment under this Clause, including:

23.3 Buyer Response - Buyer shall promptly, and in any event within twenty-one (21) calendar days after receipt of notice, respond thereto in writing. In such response, the Buyer shall either:

- (A) confirm that the conduct of which the Seller gave notice would constitute a change, and when necessary, direct the mode of further performance; or;

23.5 Special Procedures - Paragraph 23.2 above provides that Seller is to take no action to implement a potential change pending the Buyer's response to Seller's notice of the potential change, except where specifically directed by the Buyer. In special situations, however, where:

- (i) the circumstances do not allow sufficient time to notify Buyer of the facts prior to the need to proceed with the work, and;
- (ii) the work must proceed to avoid hazards to personnel or property or to avoid additional cost to the Buyer, Seller may proceed with work in accordance with the potential change. In such special situations, Seller shall advise Buyer in writing within five (5) days of the conduct giving rise to the potential change that Seller has proceeded and shall describe the nature of the special situation which required proceeding prior to notification. Within ten (10) days of the conduct giving rise to the potential change, the Seller shall provide notice as required in Paragraph 23.1 above. Buyer shall respond as set forth in Paragraph 23.3 above. If the Buyer determines that the conduct constitutes a change and countermands it, Seller shall be entitled to an equitable adjustment for performance in accordance with that change prior to the countermand including performance resulting from the countermand.

The order shall be specifically identified as a "Stop Work Order" issued under this Clause. Upon receipt of the order, the Seller shall immediately comply with its terms and take all reasonable steps to minimize the incurrence of costs allocable to the work covered by the order during the period of work stoppage. Within a period of ninety (90) days after the Stop Work Order is delivered to the Seller, or within any extension of that period to which the parties shall agree, the Buyer shall either (i) cancel the Stop Work Order, or (ii) terminate the work covered by the order as provided for in the "Default" or the "Termination for Convenience" clauses of this P.O.

- 33.4 If a Stop Work Order is not canceled and the work covered by the order is terminated for default, Buyer shall allow, by equitable adjustment or otherwise, reasonable costs resulting from the Stop Work Order.

34. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

- 34.1 Buyer may terminate performance of work under this P.O. in whole or, from time to time, in part if the Buyer determines that termination is in the Buyer's interests. Buyer shall terminate by delivering to the Seller a Notice of Termination specifying the extent of the termination and the effective date.
- 34.2 After receipt of the Notice of Termination, and except as directed by the Buyer, the Seller shall immediately proceed with the following obligations, regardless of any delay in determining or adjusting any amounts due under this Clause: (i) stop work as specified in the notice; (ii) place no further subcontracts or orders (referred to as subcontracts in this Clause) for materials, services or facilities, except as necessary to complete the continued portion of the subcontract; (iii) terminate all subcontracts to the extent they relate to the work terminated; (iv) assign to the Buyer, as directed by the Buyer, all right, title and interest of the Seller under the subcontract terminated, in which the Buyer shall have the right to settle or to pay any termination settlement proposal arising out of this termination; (v) with approval or ratification to the extent required by the Buyer, settle all outstanding liabilities and termination settlement proposals arising from the termination of subcontracts, the approval and ratification will be final for the purposes of this Clause; (vi) as directed by the Buyer, transfer title and deliver to the Buyer (a) the fabricated or unfabricated parts, work in process, completed work, Supplies, and other material produced or acquired for the work terminated, and (b) the completed or partially completed plans, drawings, information and other property that, if the P.O. had been completed, would be required to be furnished to the Buyer; (vii) complete performance of the work not terminated; (viii) take any action that may be necessary, or that the Buyer may direct, for the protection and preservation of the property related to this P.O. that is in the possession of the Seller in which the Buyer has or may acquire an interest; (ix) use best efforts to sell, as directed or authorized by the Buyer, any property of the types referred to in Paragraph (vi) above, provided, however, that the Seller (a) is not required to extend credit to any purchaser and (b) may acquire the property under the conditions prescribed by, and at prices approved by, the Buyer. Seller shall submit complete termination inventory schedules no later than 120 days from the effective date of termination. Unless extended in writing by Buyer upon written request of the Seller within this 120 day period.
- 34.3 After expiration of the plant's clearance period as defined by the Buyer, the Seller may submit to Buyer a list, certified as to quantity and quality, of termination inventory not previously disposed of, excluding Supplies authorized for disposition by the Buyer. The Seller may request Buyer to remove those Supplies or enter into an agreement for their storage. Buyer may verify the list upon removal of the Supplies, or if stored, within forty-five (45) days from submission of the list and shall correct the list, as necessary, before final settlement.
- 34.4 After termination, the Seller shall submit a final termination settlement proposal to the Buyer in the form and with the certification prescribed by the Buyer. The Seller shall submit the proposal promptly, but no later than one (1) year from the effective date of the termination, unless extended in writing by the Buyer upon written request of the Seller within this one (1)

- year period. However, if the Buyer determines the facts justify it, a termination settlement proposal may be received and acted on after one (1) year or any extension. If the Seller fails to submit the proposal within the time allowed, the Buyer may determine, upon the basis of information available, the amount, if any, due to Seller because of the termination, and shall pay the amount determined.
- 34.5 Subject to Subparagraph34.4 above, the Seller and the Buyer may agree upon the whole or any part of the amount to be paid because of the termination. The amount may include a reasonable allowance for profit on work done. However, the agreed amount, whether under this Subparagraph34.5 or Subparagraph34.6 below, exclusive of costs shown in Subparagraph34.6(C) below, may not exceed the total P.O. price as reduced by (i) the amount of payments previously made and (ii) the P.O. price of work not terminated. The P.O. shall be amended, and the Seller paid the agreed amount. Subparagraph34.6 below shall not limit, restrict or affect the amount that may be agreed upon to be paid under this Subparagraph.
- 34.6 If the Seller and the Buyer fail to agree on the whole amount to be paid because of the termination of work, the Buyer shall pay to the Seller the amounts determined by the Buyer as follows, but without duplication of any amounts agreed on in Subparagraph34.5 above:
- (A) The P.O. price of the completed Services or Supplies accepted by the Buyer (or sold or acquired under Subparagraph34.2(ix) above) not previously paid for, adjusted for any saving of freight and other charges.
 - (B) The total of (i) the cost incurred in the performance of the work terminated, including initial costs and preparatory expense allocable thereto, but excluding any cost attributable to Services or Supplies paid or to be paid under Subparagraph (A) above; (ii) the cost of settling and paying termination settlement proposals under terminated subcontracts that are properly chargeable to the terminated portion of the P.O. and not included in subdivision (i) above; and (iii) a sum or profit on subdivision (i) above, determined by the Buyer to be fair and reasonable; however, if it appears that Seller would have sustained a loss on the entire P.O. had it been completed, then the Buyer shall allow no profit under subdivision (iii) and shall reduce the settlement to reflect the indicated rate of loss.
 - (C) The reasonable cost of settlement of the work terminated, including (i) accounting, legal, clerical and other expenses reasonably necessary for the preparation of termination settlement proposals and supporting data; (ii) the termination settlement of subcontracts (excluding the amounts of such settlements); and (iii) storage, transportation and other costs incurred, reasonably necessary for the preservation, protection or disposition of the termination inventory.
- 34.7 Except for normal spoilage, and except to the extent Buyer expressly assumes the risk of loss, Buyer shall exclude from the amounts payable to Seller under Subparagraph34.6 above, the fair value, as determined by the Buyer of property that is destroyed, lost, stolen or damaged so as to become undeliverable to the Buyer.
- 34.8 Generally accepted accounting principles shall govern all cost claims agreed to or determined under this Clause.
- 34.9 The Seller shall have the right of claim, under the "Disputes" Clause, for any determination made by the Buyer in Subparagraphs34.4,34.6 or34.11, except that if the Seller failed to submit termination settlement proposal within the time provided under Subparagraphs34.4 or34.11, and failed to request a time extension, there is no right of claim. If Buyer has made a determination of the amount due under Subparagraphs34.4,34.6 or34.11, Buyer shall pay to the Seller (i) the amount determined by the Buyer if there is no right of appeal or if no timely appeal has been taken, or (ii) the amount finally determined on an appeal.
- 34.10 In arriving at the amount due the Seller under this Clause, there shall be deducted (i) all unliquidated advance or other payments to the Seller under the terminated portion of this P.O. (ii) any claim which Buyer has against the Seller under this P.O.; and (iii) the agreed price for, or the proceeds of sales of, materials, Supplies or other things acquired by the Seller or sold under the provisions of this Clause and not recovered by or credited to the Buyer.
- 34.11 If the termination is partial, the Seller may file a proposal with the Buyer for equitable adjustment of the price(s) of the continued portion of the P.O. Buyer shall make any equitable adjustment agreed upon. Any proposal by the Seller for an equitable adjustment under this Clause shall be requested within ninety (90) days of the effective date of termination unless extended in writing by the Buyer.
- 34.12 Buyer may, under the terms and conditions it prescribes, make partial payments and payments against costs incurred by the Seller for the terminated portion of the P.O., if Buyer believes the total of these payments will not exceed the amount of which the Seller will be entitled. If the total payments exceed the amount finally determined to be due, the Seller shall repay the excess to Buyer upon demand, together with interest computed at the rate established by the Secretary of the Treasury under 50 U.S.C. Appendix 1215(b)(2). Interest shall be computed for the period from the date the excess payment is received by the Seller to the date the excess is repaid. Interest shall not be charged on any excess payment due to a reduction in the Seller's termination settlement proposal because of retention or other disposition of termination inventory until ten (10) days after the date of the retention disposition, or later date determined by the Buyer because of the circumstances.
- 34.13 Unless otherwise provided in this P.O., the Seller shall maintain all records and documents relating to the terminated portion of this P.O. for three (3) years after final settlement. This includes all books and other evidence bearing the Seller's costs and expenses under this P.O.. The Seller shall make these records and documents available to the Buyer, at the Seller's office, at all reasonable times, without any direct charge. If approved by the Buyer, photographs, microphotographs, or other authentic reproductions may be maintained instead of original records and documents.
35. TITLE
Unless otherwise stated in this P.O., title to Supplies covered by this P.O. shall pass from the Buyer to SELLER at the Delivery location specified in the P.O.
36. WAIVER
No waiver by either the Buyer or the Seller, whether written or oral, expressed or implied, of any rights under or arising from this P.O. shall be binding on any subsequent occasion and no concession by either the Buyer or the Seller shall be treated as a variation of this P.O. unless specifically agreed in writing.

37. WARRANTY

- 37.1 The Seller warrants that all Supplies and Services furnished under this P.O. will be in accordance with all contract requirements and free from defects or inferior materials, equipment, and workmanship for twelve (12) months after final acceptance of the Supplies or Services.
- 37.2 If, within the warranty period, Buyer finds that the warranted Supplies or Services need to be repaired, changed or reformed because of the use of materials, equipment or workmanship which are inferior, defective or not in accordance with the terms of the P.O., insofar as it is practicable, Buyer shall so inform the Seller in writing and the Seller, if so directed, shall promptly and without additional expense to the Buyer:
- (A) place in satisfactory condition the warranted work;
 - (B) satisfactorily correct direct damage to equipment, the site, the compartment or contents thereof, which is the result of such unsatisfactory warranted work; and
 - (C) satisfactorily correct the work, materials and equipment that are disturbed in fulfilling the warranty, including the disturbed work, materials and equipment that may have been warranted under another contract.
- The decision as to whether the Seller or the Buyer will perform the warranty work shall be at the discretion of the Buyer provided, however, that insofar as is practicable, the Seller shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to inspect and correct the questioned materials, equipment or workmanship prior to the performance of the warranty work by the Buyer. When Buyer directs the Seller to perform the warranty work, if the Seller fails to proceed promptly in accordance with the warranty, Buyer may have such work performed at the expense of the Seller.
- 37.3 Any Supplies, Services or parts thereof corrected, repaired, replaced or otherwise placed in a satisfactory condition shall also be subject to the conditions of this Clause to the same extent as the Supplies or Services initially accepted. The warranties for such Supplies, Services or parts thereof shall be for twelve (12) months to run from the date of Buyer's final acceptance of such Supplies or Services.
- 37.4 Buyer shall have the right to purchase parts, for installation either from the Seller, or directly from the Actual Parts Manufacturer (APM) without voiding this warranty. Any special warranty that may be required under this Subcontract shall be subject to the stipulations set forth above, insofar as they do not conflict with the provisions of such special warranties.
- 37.5 Seller shall obtain each transferable guaranty or warranty of equipment, material or installation thereof which is furnished by any manufacturer, supplier or installer in the ordinary course of the manufacturer's, supplier's or installer's business or trade. In addition, the Seller shall obtain and furnish to Buyer all information which is required in order to make any such guaranty or warranty legally binding and effective, and shall submit both the information and the guaranty or warranty to Buyer to meet any time limit requirements specified in the guaranty or warranty, or if no time limit is specified in the guaranty or warranty, prior to completion and acceptance of all work under the P.O.
- 37.6 The Seller shall have no liability to Buyer under this warranty for any consequential, special and incidental damages resulting from defects or deficiencies in the Supplies or Services delivered under this P.O.
- 37.7 No commercial warranty is given hereunder. All implied warranties of "merchantability" and "fitness for a particular purpose" are excluded from any obligation contained in this P.O.
- 37.8 Disputes arising under this Clause shall be resolved in accordance with the clause of this P.O. entitled "Disputes".
